

SURVIVE | THRIVE | REVIVE - New Networks for Nature 2022

3-5 November 2022, St Peter's School, York

Programme

This is the final programme for the 2022 New Networks for Nature event in York outlining the sessions and contributors for each day. In addition there will, as always, be an excellent bookstall, good food and drink, and lots of opportunities for meeting and conversation. We look forward to seeing you there.

Thursday 3rd Nov - afternoon

Excursion (optional)

Lower Derwent Valley NNR - David Craven, Brian Lavalley (Yorkshire Wildlife Trust)

Thursday 3rd Nov - evening (19:00-22:00)

Conversation

Star Carr and Seahenge: our place in nature, then and now - Nicky Milner, Francis Pryor

Music

Nature in Song - Nancy Kerr

Friday 4th Nov (09:00-20:00)

Prologues

Prosperous Mountain - Heidi Morstang
Worlding: Hopeful Poetry for a Climate Crisis - Matt Sowerby

Nature Matters - Yorkshire and North East Film Archives

Panel sessions

Home Grown: Nature, Nurture & Nourishment - Jill Edmondson, Sara Venn, Susie Tate

Making with Nature - Lorna Singleton, Alex Langlands, Jenn Monahan

A Right to Roam is a Right to Care - Nadia Shaikh, Kerri Andrews, Mohammed Dhalech, Nick Howard

Attack on Nature: Who Will Defend Our Wild? Emma Marsh, Kaye Brennan, Paul Powlesland

Conversation

Wild Water- Sophie Pavelle, Amy-Jane Beer

Film

Riverwoods - Scotland: the Big Picture

Saturday 5th Nov (09:20-16:00)

Science short

Water Fleas: Surviving, Thriving and Reviving - Andrew Beckerman

Prologues

Data of the Heart - Harriet & Rob Fraser
Radical Hope - Karen Lloyd

Panel sessions

Living in a Sentient World - Peter Reason, Sarah Gillespie, Freya Mathews

Northern Revival - Lee Schofield, Heather Devey, Cain Scrimgeour

Perspective

Reviving Biodiversity - Chris Thomas

Conversation

Why Are We Doing? Making Art in a Global Crisis - Melissa Harrison